

Raising funds is child's play for Chengs

CHINESE restaurant Cheng's on Fitzroy used its second birthday celebration earlier this month to raise money for the Kirribilli Neighbourhood Centre.

The Cheng brothers – Andrew and Matthew – behind the Fitzroy St, Kirribilli, restaurant chose to raise money to help buy toys for playgroups held at the centre.

Matthew Cheng said it was important to support the community, with the restaurant using its opening night in 2008 to raise money for people devastated by the Sichuan earthquake.

“Doing business is not just about making money, you have to be comfortable in a community,” he said.
Pictures:

1. Andrew Cheng and Laura Smith. 2. Coliza Cheng, Pam Leung, Lydia Tam. 3. Restaurant owners Matthew and Andrew Cheng. 4. Neil and Danielle Krotzch, and Jack and Christi Ann Tyler Scott.

